Letter To the Editor:-

There has been some criticism of the rate payers of Drayton Valley for desisting a recent proposal to borrow $50,000, 60 per cent of the cost of an open-air swimming pool. No doubt those in favor have given serious thought to all aspects of this proposition but it must be made clear that those of us who voted down this project were not guilty of acting on impulse.

Even those in favor of building the pool admit that estimates, based on operations of similar pools in other towns, would indicate that repayment of the debt would be made in about 10 years. Even if the pool were built at a cost of $25,000, 60 per cent of the cost would be for an average small town of 1000 people per year - about $2,500.00 per month. These estimates say that it is money well spent. We feel that, even if our citizens can afford the repayment tax increase, an out-of-pocket expense of $2,500.00 per month is an expensive luxury and more practical expenditures should come first.

If there is a property tax increase it is likely to cause rates to increase, prices of real estate and goods to be increased, unless steps are taken to increase. Citizens with common sense make it quite plain that they are not content with the present value, in view of all this money to be paid for the pool, they will be more likely to vote "no" when this proposition comes up again on April 1st.

CAR STOLEN IN D.V.

An exciting ninety mile chase involving three stolen cars started at Drayton Valley and ended with three youths being held in Edmonton.

Romy Meyer, son of Mayor Addison Meyer came out of the curling rink early Saturday evening to find the family car gone. R.C.M.P. were immediately notified and got on the trail of the stolen car which was speeding toward Wabasca.

At Wabasca the three boys abandoned the Meyer car and drove off in a second car parked nearby and bearing Saskatchewan plates. Pursued now by both Drayton Valley and British Columbia police, the stolen car went through a police road block at Thorby, almost running over the Thorby Town Policemen and on towards Camar.

Here the car hit a ditch, the three boys climbed out and into a Cabana car parked nearby. At this point the Leduc and Edmonton R.C.M.P. took up the trail and picked up the boys, one from Drayton Valley and two from Mton, just outside of the Edmonton City limits. (Cont. on page 10, Col. 1)

CATTLE CRIBS AND LOUSE CONTROL.

Stock that is treated for warble gnats and lice early in the spring will be in much better condition when they go out to pasture. Livestock men and dairy farmers are urged to check their cattle now and use the recommended insecticides.

Both gnats and lice can be effectively controlled on beef cattle with one application of this systemic insecticide Co-It. However, this chemical is never to be used on lactating animals because it will contaminate their milk. Anomine is the only insecticide that is safe for milking animals. It should be applied either as a spray or as a wash and scrubbed well into the hair. Anomine will control both warble gnats and lice but the first application usually lasts for one to two weeks, and the second in 10 to 15 days.

Malathion is recommended for slaughter animals afflicted with lice only. These animals can be slaughtered immediately after they have been treated. One application will destroy both adult lice and nits. Malathion is a cable-type backrubber in a feedlot but it should never be used on dairy cows because it will contaminate their milk.

Detailed information on insecticides is contained in a new pamphlet entitled "Control of Livestock Insects" which can be obtained from your district agriculturalist.

BOG CHART MEASURES VALUERS

A housewife buying Grade A eggs and seeing the different prices for large, medium and small sizes in this grade is at a loss to comprehend a value offered that is, unless she has the Canada Department of Agriculture's free egg price Ready Reckoner.

With this in her possession, she can instantly make the comparison and decide which is the best bargain.

For instance, if Large are selling at 47 cents, the Ready Reckoner would show that Mediums are 44 cents or smalls at 36 cents would be comparable in value as determined by calculations of the poultry merchandising section of the CNA, Ltd. If Mediums were offered for 40 cents when Large were 46 cents and smalls at 36, Mediums would be the best buy.

When Mediums and smalls are in surplus supply, prices are sometimes reduced. Only a handy Ready Reckoner can tell the shopper quickly whether the selection makes them better than Large eggs.

The Ready Reckoner information is printed on a cardboard clutch for inches square and on a small or attached disc which can be carried in a pocket. It will be sent free on request to: Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Of the 10,000 discs in English and French that have been made, some 50,000 have been distributed, mostly through exhibitions and egg grading stations.

Holding a Right Sense of Values

Let love be genuine hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good. —Romans 12:9.

By Rev. Leslie Waterhouse

Taken From Family Herald.

One of the most important things in the world is that we have a true sense of values which we should be able to maintain in order to assess those things which are the greatest worth. It is interesting that the word "worth" and the word "worthy" come from the same root, and that the origin of the word "value" is the same as that of the word "valor". Our sense of values should be our appreciation for the things, lasting, dependable and virtuous things.

Modern life has made it increasingly difficult for us to keep our sense of values from becoming confused. The world is like a shop window in which some mischievous person has shifted all the price labels around, so the cheap things have the high-priced labels, and the valuable things are low priced. We let ourselves be taken in. Getting on in the world, having a good time, making quick money, cheating, getting away with it, are the things we are taught to value. We are not our own, we belong to Him. It will enhance our sense of values to think of where we are going. The journey and we may not be as distant as we think and then our diamonds are not money, nor any of life's gains will purchase anything for us.

We are all precious value, bought with the price of great sacrifice. The Cost of our service in this life is the background of our lives, and the cost God paid to redeem us. We are not our own, we belong to Him. It will enhance our sense of values to think of where we are going. The journey and we may not be as distant as we think and then our diamonds are not money, nor any of life's gains will purchase anything for us.

The true values of life are gathered by the grace of all things. The Christ of God's revealing, leading from His Kingdom everything else will fall into the right perspective for us.

God at the Center

God is just as much the life of the soul when it is being pleased in the dark earth, where to the human sense it is dead and all the things of the world are dead, as the new light that a few days later bursts into life because God is there at the center, working in the wilderness, and not at all because of the sun, noisy outside world that you see, but that the seed comes forth into newness of life. By H. Emilie Cady, Forerunner Radio Teacher.

Are You Ready?

Preparation is one of the most practical factors in operating the way for supply. The story of the case of oil is a lesson in practicality. The prophet taught that all prayer for supply amounts to nothing if preparation is not made to receive. He made a significant form of prayer, which is none other than preparation. In the Gospel story, this same lesson is taught when Jesus bade the disciples to make every preparation for food, even before there was a sign of multiplied loaves and fishes. It is a fair thing to ask of each Christian who prays to his Father for supply. Do you prepare for the things which you ask for in prayer?

Taken From Good Business

Be the model that you think others should be. Then you always will have a standard of excellence and attainment. The excellence that you demand of others, demand of yourself, since you have conceived that idea of excellence. Be better, live better, attain to sublime heights than you expect of your teachers. Unless the pupil surpasses the teacher progress will cease. Devote to better living the energy that you could spend in criticism. Then your vision will become clear so that you will find nothing to criticize anywhere; you demand on yourself to be so indicative that there will be left no space in which to slip. Yet somewhere lies a shore, a new land, somewhere to be discovered. You may have visited it before, but the flowers and the foliage are different now, the people are not exactly the same.

The chase by local R.C.M.P. marked the second time they had pursued a stolen vehicle east across the river on the highway east.

In March, 1961, Corporal Wilson spotted a car in Drayton Valley that had been reported stolen from a town east of the river. Corporal Wilson gave chase and the driver of the car headed east at high speed. Following ahead the Brown R.C.M.P. were notified and set up a road-block which the driver of the stolen vehicle also evaded. At Leduc another roadblock was set up in the form of two police cars across the highway. The stolen car promptly crashed into the two cars wrecking all three of the vehicles. When the stolen car was stopped it was found it had been stolen by boys, on parole and the other 13.

Boxing Club News

On a recent trip to Rimby for a boxing match March 30th, the P.B.C. were taken down by Gordon Crow, Don Becker, Al. McKelvie and Harvey Baughman. The Club's participating were from Ruston, Hobbes, Lacombe, Rimby and six of our local boys. All our boys except Arno Webber were matched and all were winners.

Ervin Combs 65 lbs. won first fight by a unanimous decision. Ervin was not rattled by the bout, so was matched for his second fight, after a check by the doctor went back in after 1 1/2 hours and T.K.O. was called. Ervin won the most sportsman boxer of the night.

Prize which was a beautiful set with a Rimby boy of which Ervin was quite smug. Mervin Combs, who fought a Rimby boy at well, came out on top. Mervin's opponent won the best home town boxer award.

We have several new boys in the Drayton Valley Club now. One being Al Pank. He had one being Al Pank. He had his first fight with a tough boy from Hady who has fought in the services. Al weighed in at 170 pounds, at about 55 seconds of the first round he was going to be a boy to keep an eye on, in the future as he is coming a long fine.

We have a fight planned for the 28th of April for Drayton Valley. Our boys will be matched for this fight, when we meet in Edmonton S. & L. on the 1st of April for a card with Scotty McGraw. So watch the paper for the matched fights in the future.

Gordon Crow.
